TEUTONS IN FLIGHT

Whole Division Annihilated—Third German Reserves Mowed Down by Machine Guns

London, Aug. 12. — The advance guard of the Russian force that occupied Stanislau pressed on two miles northeast of the city and crossed the river Zlota Bistritza, 18 miles south of Halitz, according to Petrograd dispatches today.

The Austro-Germans offered but weak resistance, and then continued their retreat northward toward the Dneister river, crossing at Halitz.

Petrograd, Aug. 12—Stanislau, an important railroad centre southeast of Lemberg, capital of Galicia, has been occupied by Russian troops. The capture of Stanislau, which occurred Thursday evening, is announced in the official statement given out this evening.

The troops of General Lotchitzky pursued the Austrians, who retreated in the direction of Halich.

The Russians also have made important successes in the Sereth region. They compelled the Austro-Germans to retire from the fortified positions of Gliadka and Voroblesk and have occupied the town of Monasterzyska.

The capture of Stanislau gives the Russians another gateway through which they can march toward Lemberg. Like Brody, Stanislau is an portant railroad centre. Railroads radiate from it in five directions. It is 87 miles southeast of Lemberg and is situated between two forks of the Bystritza river, 10 miles south of the Dniester. Stanislau was a manufacturing city and agricultural centre before the war and had a population of 33,000.

Vienna, Aug. 12—"We have evacuated Stanislau without fighting," says the official statement issued from general headquarters. The statement also admits the withdrawal of Austrian troops to new positions in the Stanislau and Monasterzkska regions owing to the Russian pressure.

Berlin, Aug. 12—Austro-German troops in the region of Monasterzyska at points on the Dniester and in the Bystritza river regions of Galicia, have been compelled to give way because of the superiority of hostile forces at these places, says yesterday's War Office statement.

Negroes Who Robbed Fairfax County Store Given Hearing Yesterday.

Details of a robbery a few miles outside this city were disclosed when John Bell and Elijah Lincoln were held at the station house in this city yesterday by the local police for the Fairfax county authorities. The lads were colored and had broken into the store of Joseph M. Springman at Lorton, where they had made a get away with a supply of clothing, a revolver, and purse of money belonging to Springman, all of which was later identified by the latter as his property.

The youths were arraigned late yesterday before Magistrate Troth, of Fairfax county, who held them for the action of the grand jury, and turned them over to Sheriff Allison, of that county.

Constable Norman Dove secured the culprits from police headquarters in this city prior to their trial before the magistrate yesterday afternoon.

GERMANS LOSE MORE TRENCHES

Determined Struggle for Possession of Vantage Ground

WAR IN THE BALKANS

Allies Drive Bulgarians from Doiran, 40 Miles Northeast of City of Saloniki

Paris, Aug. 12.— The French repulsed heavy German attacks on both sides of the Somme last night, it was officially announced today, and made further progress on the fronth northeast of Verdun.

At 9 o'clock last night the Germans launched an attack against the Hem quarry, north of the Somme, losing heavily. This attack broke down under French fire.

The French meanwhile continued to organize their new front in this region where progress was made yesterday. French reconnoitering parties, entering a wood east of Hem, found heaps of enemy dead,

South of the Somme the Germans delivered an attack against La Maisonette. This attempt was checked by French screen-fire before the enemy could debouch.

On the Verdun front French detachments made progress south of Thiaumont work, and repulsed two German attacks at Fleury. Artillery combats occurred on the sectors of Vaux, Chapitre, and Chenois.

London, Aug. 12.— The Germans last night made futile attempts to recapture the trenches and high ground north of Pozieres recently captured by the Australians, General Haig reported this afternoon. The Teutons suffered heavy losses.

Paris, Aug. 12—The French to the north of the River Somme, in France in brilliant fighting have captured German trenches near Maurepas and a fortified quarry to the south of the Hem wood, according to the French official communication issued this evening.

Berlin, Aug. 12—Both the French and the British are continuing their attacks on the German lines north of the Somme, but neither has been successful in making any impression on the German lines, the War Office announced yesterday.

Paris, Aug. 12—An attack by Anglo-French forces on the Bulgarians at Doiran, 40 miles northwest of Saloniki, is reported in a Havas dispatch from Saloniki.

The Allies occupied the Doiran railway station and a neighboring hill. In front of the captured positions, the dispatch says, the bodies of numerous Bulgarians were found. The attack was preceded by a vigorous bombardment.

At other points along the front artillery fighting continues, with patrol engagements along the Serbian border

London, Aug. 12—Reuter's correspondent at Saloniki telegraphs that the artillery duel on the Balkan front has been renewed. The height captured by the Anglo-French forces is Hill 227, south of Doiran. The railway station lies five miles east of the town.

There have been several small engagements recently along this front, as well as frequent heavy artillery battles. A general offensive movement on the part of the army of French, British and Serbians troops based on Saloniki, which is reported to number nearly 700,000, has been expected for several weeks. The engagement near Doiran, however, apparently, was a minor affoir.

"THE GREAT RED DRAGON"

Wonder Which Appears in Heaven Subject of Evangelist's Discourse.

Evangelist Gibson at the gospel tent meeting last night spoke on "the Great Red Dragon" so graphically described in the twelfth chapter of the book of Revelation. The speaker during his discourse referred to Paul being caught up to the third heaven or, as the apostle says in one place, he was caught up into Paradise. Paradise, the speaker said, is the place of the tree of life; also of the river of the water of life that proceeds from the throne of God. Paradise, then, is where God is.

Continuing he said: "The Prophets Moses and Jeremiah speak of the first heaven, or the atmospheric heaven, and the Prophet John in Rev. vi., 13, speaks of the stellar heaven, which would be the second heaven. The heaven spoken of by John in Rev. xii., 1, is the the atmospheric heaven. The woman represents the church of the Lord throughout the chapter. The great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns upon his head represents Rome in its pagan and papal forms of government. The 1260 days are the 1260 years in which the church was persecuted by the dragon or papal Rome when so many millions of people were put to death because of their faith in God and His Word. The other dragon spoken of is Satan, the devil, who gave the other dragon its authority to do its wicked work. The earth which helped the woman, or church, was this wonderful nation of ours the United States of America, where the Pilgrim Fathers came where they could worship God in the church without a Pope and have a government without a king. In other words, a republican form of government."

"The Promise of the Overcomer," will be the subject Sunday night, on which occasion Elder R. T. Dowsett, of Takoma Park, will again be the speaker. Chorister Ellers will sing on this occasion "No Room in the Inn."

WILSON WILL FORCE FIGHT

President to Make Swing Through West During Campaign

WILL MAKE APPEALS

Hughes Tour a Disappointment to Republicans—Picayune Issues Fail to Attract Interest

That President Wilson has no idea of engaging in a purely defensive campaign for re-election is indicated by the fact that he has made up his mind to swing across the continent for a man-to-man and a heart-to-heart discussion of the issues with the American voter.

No formal announcement of the time when the President will start or of his itinerary has been made for the reason that neither of these details has been determined upon, but Senator Phelan, of California, was assured yesterday that the President would make the trip. It is probable that Mr. Wilson will start about the middle of September and will return some time in October.

It is intimated that the northern route will be followed on the way to the Pacific Coast, and that the President will return by way of El Paso, where he will review the regulars and National Guardsmen now patrolling the Mexican border.

The decision of the President to engage in a speech-making trip through the West bears out the statement recently printed to the effect that he would fight aggressively and not defensively for victory in November. He means to attack the record of the Republican party while standing pat upon that of his own, and to force the Republican candidate to defend the Republicanism which accomplished his nomination, or else permit its conviction by default.

In making his assault upon the Republican party the chances are that the testimony of Progressives will be cited to show that organization's unfitness to govern the country. No Democratic campaigner has ever assailed Republican black-jackism, for instance, as did Colonel Roosevelt four years ago. No Democratic spokesman ever denounced the G. O. P. leaders as did the Bull Moosers orators in the three cornered fight of 1912.

Most of the revolt against the Republican party has its origin in the country which the President proposes to visit. That was the section in which the first insurgency, led by Dolliver, La Follette, Cummings and Borah, and men of that type, was born and was given enthusiastic support. That was the section from which Hiram Johnson, Henry and Lindsey hail.

It is generally agreed that the Hughes tour has been a disappointment so far. But this cannot be charged wholly to an demonstration of sentiment in the states which he has visited. It is more attributable to the kind of campaign he has chosen to engage in. He has raised picayune issues.

Most friends of the Republican nominee are painfully surprised at the unappealing character of his speeches. They had been led to believe by his New York campaigning years ago and by the intellectual breadth of the man that he would deal sledge-hammer blows at the Wilson administration; that he would tear the record of the last four years to pieces; that he would expose the Wilson policies and show the people that the present regime was one of failure and futility.

Instead of this, Mr. Hughes has been complaining bitterly about the promotion of veterinary surgeons in the public service; about the decline in the standard of diplomatic service; about the violations of the civil service law and about the appointment of Democrats to office in the place of Republicans. He has been indulging in sweeping generalities about "efficiency" in government; about "pork barrel" appropriations and occasionally about the sacredness of American rights in Mexico and in Europe.

ITALIANS FORGE WAY TO TRIESTE

Duke of Aosta Captures Rubbia and San Mantino Del Carso

ALSO TAKE PLATEAU

Austrians Fall Back to Dornberg, Eight Miles from Gorizia—Berlin Admits Defeat

Rome, Aug. 12—The Italians have occupied the entire Doberdo plateau, The War Office announces.

The Italians also have captured Rubbia and San Martino del Carso. They have reached the line of the Vallone river. The Austrians have retired to the east of the town of Vallone.

By their new victories the Italians have taken an important step toward clearing the salient formed by the bend of the Isonzo below Gorizia. The Doberdo plateau was the scene of heavy fighting earlier in the war but the Austrians obstinately withstood efforts of the Italians to win this important position. This fighting took place on a front some distance below Gorizia, the capture of which enabled the Italians to push forward in the direction of Trieste in this region. San Martino del Carso is six miles southwest of Gorizia. It is about 20 miles from Trieste. The importance of the Italian successes around Gorizia is becoming more evident hourly. The battle is continuing behind the city over a front about 12 miles long. The Austrians have retreated along the railroad in the direction of Dornberg, eight miles southeast of Gorizia, and over the national highway to Schon Pass, six miles to the east, and are now attempting to reform their front on a line extending from Vipacco to Tarnovau.

Meanwhile the Austrians are attempting to take the offensive at Monte Nero and various other points of the Italian front, but thus far have been unable to divert the Italians from their operations behind Gorizia.

Popular enthusiasm is at high pitch throughout Italy. Congratulations are pouring in from all parts of the world to King Victor Emmanuel and General Cadorna. The King and the commander-in-chief have been particularly pleased by messages from Italians in New York and other parts of the United States.

The Third Army, under command of the Duke of Aosta, which is still bearing the brunt of the fighting has won high praise as well as much sympathy on account of its losses. The Duke, before the battle began, called on his army to fight and win "in the name of your mothers, your wives, your sisters and your country".

MORE LIGHTS FOR CITY

Council Will Enter Into New Contract With Alexandria County Lighting Company

Common Council.

Under the terms of a ten year contract with the Alexandria County Lighting Company for furnishing lights for illuminating the city, adopted by the city council at a special meeting of that body last night, on the recommendation of the joint committee on finance and light, Alexandria in the future will have 234 lights against 157 which it now has, which will mean that there will be better illumination for the city and also the doing away with the gas lamps on the various street corners. It was explained that the foregoing number of lights will mean a light for practically every street corner in the city.

The price of the lights under the new contract is $9,420 against $8,403 for the present lighting facilities.

The lights to be furnished under the new contract are as follows: 58 with 40 candle power at $18 a year; 57 with 100 candle power at $24; 104 with 400 candle power at $57; 15 with 600 candle power at $72, making a grand total of $9,420.

The present system includes 96 are lights at $75 a year 4, 100 candle power at $24; 56 lights at $19.15 a year and 1, 40 candle power at $15 or a grand total cost of $8,403.

Capt. Albert Bryan, chairman of the finance committee, said that the adoption of the new contract would mean the doing away with 67 gas lamps now in use throughout the city which, estimating gas at its present price, would mean a save of $1,260 a year which coupled with $375 for the upkeep of these lamps would mean a total saving of $1,535.

In the judgment of the committee he said it would mean a saving of about $564 a year to the city with the increased number of lights after taking off the cost of the gas lights. The committee he said had been working on the contract for the past two months. It was adopted without a dissenting vote.

Taxpayers have until October in which to pay their city taxes in order to get the usual five per cent discount offered for prompt payment and those who pay by October 15 will obtain a discount of three per cent. This date for the payment of taxes was fixed upon by the finance committee, and their report was adopted.

The tax bills are ordinarily due and payable July 1, but this year were delayed which will make them three months late. The bills will be ready for payment Capt. Bryan explained about September 10.

Councilman Bryan, who lives at the corner of Prince and Columbus streets, presented a petition to council asking council for relief from the annoyance incident to the constant use of the water plug in front of his residence by the city water cart, It was set forth in the petition that the Alexandria Water Company permits only three plugs to be used by the city in getting its water supply for sprinkling the streets.

Councilman Smith said as he saw the matter Capt. Bryan had two serious grounds for complaint. The Water Company he said only permits the city to get water from two or three plugs. It is a condition that should not exist he declared. The expense in lost time was also recounted by him in the wagons going a considerable distance to this plug when they could get it at some nearby plug.

Mr. Smith said there should be some way to connect so as not to flood the streets and frequently he said a great hole is made in the street as a result. He asked that the matter be referred to the street committee and they ask for immediate relief.

Councilman Marbury said efforts had formerly been made along such lines without effect, and added the committee on streets would like the present system changed.

Councilman Pohl desired to know what the objection was to the city's using more than three plugs.

Councilman C. S. Taylor Burke said he had been informed that the incessant turning off and on of the water plugs caused the objection because of damage done plugs He was informed that the plugs are the property of the city and that the city foots the repair bills.

Councilman Ballenger offered a resolution that the city engineer be instructed to have the driver of the water cart here after go to the nearest plug to get water for the city water cart, and that the city engineer have this put into effect at once. The resolution, at the suggestion of Councilman Bryan, was referred to the street committee.

On the recommendation of the joint committee on finance and schools the sum of $750 was appropriated for improvements to the old Howell school building which building adjoins Washington school for boys on Washington street near Wolfe St.

Councilman Bryan explained that after the necessary repairs are made to this building several rooms can be used which will do away with the necessity of renting additional quarters in which to house the children.

Councilman C. S. Taylor Burke introduced a resolution that the city engineer be instructed to withhold issuing a permit to the Southern Railway Company for the proposed construction of a roundhouse in the western section of the city until the plans for the proposed structure are examined.

Mr. Burke explained that the residents of West End and Rosemont are anxious to know what effect, if any its construction would have on them regarding smoke. He thought it best to discuss the matter with the rail way officials first.

Councilman Marbury explained that the plans and specifications will have to be submitted first before a permit can be issued, and he suggested the matter be referred to the street committee. President Smith said if the railway company complies with the law he did not see how anything could be done.

The resolution was then referred to the street committee.

Other business transacted will be found in the official proceedings.

Jerome Kaufman, recently elected a member of common council from the second ward to fill out the unexpired term of the late R. D. Brumback last night attended his first meeting of council as a member.

President Smith announced that the next meeting of council would be held at noon September 1 for the purpose of organizing.

Board of Aldermen.

Five members were present at the called meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night. But one paper was presented, that of Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler, chairman of the finance committee of the Anne Lee Memorial Home, asking an appropriation of $500 to aid in maintaining that institution. The petition was referred to the finance committee.

The board concurred in the action of the Common Council on all papers sent in.

When the proposal of the Alexandria County Electric Light Company for lighting the city and the preamble and resolution recommending the adoption of the same had been read, Mr. Fitzgerald explained the matter in a clear and succinct Bryan in the lower board.
manner, substantially as had Mr.

There was no discussion upon any matter which came up, and the Aldermen adjourned after having been in session about an hour.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS.

That some persons were unnecessary cruel under the old indenture system is admitted, but that the old-fashioned apprentice system more often served the best purpose by making men out of incorrigible boys must also be allowed.

The indenture system was transplanted from England to the United States as soon as the country gained its independence and was operative in Virginia until after the war between the states. There were doubtless some cases where children fell into the hands of brutes, but, on the other hand, the majority who became apprentices were reared in good families and when they reached their majority they found themselves with trades and with their characters formed upon proper lines.

The Newgate Calendar furnishes some cases where persons who took boys and girls from poorhouses were cruel, and in two or three cases children died from want of proper clothing and nourishment.

Before Charles Dickens attained notoriety, a woman known among criminals as Mrs. Brownrigg was hanged in London for causing the death of a little girl she had taken out of a poorhouse. Dickens, as a newspaper man, witnessed the execution, after having heard the evidence in the case, and the author, it is believed, wrote "Oliver Twist" from the suggestions he then received. Little Oliver, it will be remembered, was an apprentice to Mr. Sowerberry, an undertaker, and at times slept under the counter.

The story of Cosette, daughter of Fantine, in Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables," who had such a terrible experience in the house of Thanardier, a former soldier, is touching, and recitals like those referred to had much to do with obliterating the indenture system which passed away with the abolition of slavery in the United States.

But we have often thought that the apprentice system had its good and bad side. While some children may have been ill-treated, the great majority were not, although they were brought up in a severe school of responsibility, but which resulted in good in after life.

It seems that the number of juvenile offenders is growing in Alexandria. A number of small boys have been brought before the Police Court this summer, to answer charges which show they have started on the broad road to destruction, and should no curb be placed upon them they will eventually become apt scholars with the "Dodger" and "Noah Claypole" in the Fagin school, as described in "Oliver Twist."

The Police Court has been as lenient as possible and only in aggravated and continuous cases of larceny and other unlawful acts has the court sentenced such offenders to the reform school.

Two urchins were before the court this morning, both charged with robbery. One towards whom the court has on other occasions been lenient, having turned him over to his parents with the understanding that he would be placed in the home of some relative away from Alexandria, but which promise had not been fulfilled, was charged with breaking and entering a machine shop and stealing articles therefrom. There was but one recourse, and he was sentenced to the reform school.

The other culprit is a ten year old boy, who had no police record. He, too, was charged with entering a place and carrying off money and some articles. His mother is a widow with seven children, who is eking out an existence under a heavy load of responsibility. It being her son's first offense, she was given the choice of placing the boy in the home of a relative in Washington or having him sent to the reform school. She, of course, chose the first plan, and left the court room weeping.

Now would it not be better to turn over such children to some respectable persons in whose homes they would be compelled to remain, and where they would acquire trades and be taught respectability and responsibility during their early life?

THE GREAT APOSTACY.

The Gazette has occasionally on Saturdays ventured to introduce an article in this department on some Bible or spiritual subject, as is the custom of some of our contemporaries which have no Sunday editions. We have been asked on different occasions to continue this feature, but fearing that we might weary the reader, we have not been as prompt to meet the request as we might have been. But during the month of August most of the resident clergy are out of the city, and not anticipating any immediate refutation of anything we might have the nerve to set forth, we concluded to send forth another observation upon a subject ("The Apostacy") discoursed upon by an itinerant minister last Sunday night in this city. He took for his text a verse from the prophet Jeremiah.

It seemed to us that the most vital passages of the Bible referring directly to what is termed the "Apostacy" were ignored altogether by the speaker. Like many others since the days of Martin Luther, he attempted to show that virtually all the forecasts in the scriptures concerning the coming apostacy had been fulfilled in Constantine, Mahomet, so-called christians and others who have figured during the Christian era. His was the reasoning of Cumming, probably one of the greatest minds of the nineteenth century, although his conclusions are controverted by many equally as great.

When the Reformation was well under way nearly every man who assayed to "speak out in meeting" or to write a commentary upon the Bible assumed that each horrid picture in holy writ referred to the Papacy. Some so-called orthodox commentators are doing the same today.

But as time goes on the Bible is gradually unfolding. Thinking people are not now going to Gibbons's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire in order to find fulfillments of the forecasts of Daniel and the Apocalypse, but are becoming convinced that the apostacy and the rise of antichrist are events still in the future, and that Nero, Constantine, the Pope, Mahomet, Martin Luther, Napoleon and many others were not intended.

Let us see about this in the examination of a portion of the Bible seldom explored and seldom referred to by modern preachers.

We refer to the Second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians. Did the reader ever ask himself the question, Why are there second epistles? Could not the Inspirer of Holy Writ have embraced all that it was necessary to utter in one epistle? Surely He could. But those who make a close study of the Bible have noticed that in every case second epistles deal largely in the deplorable condition of both church and state in the future. this is especially noticeable in the second letter to the Thesalonians, to Timothy and the second epistle of Peter.

It will be necessary to reproduce several verses of the second chapter of Second Thessalonians in order to make our position plain. Paul was with the Thessalonians two weeks, during which time he imparted to them many things concerning the second advent and the setting up of of the Kingdom of Heaven. He had taught them that the Great Deliverer would come with his mighty angels, in flaming fire, taking vengeance upon them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Thessalonians had doubtless supposed, from the persecutions of that day, that the vengeance of Jehovah was then being poured out upon this earth. Paul attempts to dispel this notion by writing the following:

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come except there be a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work; only he who now letteth (hinders) will let (hinder) until he be taken out of the way; and then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

Now what is to be taken out of the way before the above conditions can be precipitated? Some have strangely supposed that the breaking up of the Roman Empire was intended, in order that Papal Rome could succeed it. This was an unsatisfactory conclusion from the first. But telling what is not intended but failing to show what is intended is equally unsatisfactory.

In the first book of the Bible, a short time before the flood, Jehovah uttered these fearful words, "My spirit shall not always strive with man." Is the spirit of God to be taken out of the world before this mystery of iniquity heads up? If so, acts now committed in secret will be perpetrated upon housetops, and the last state of the world will become worse than that of the first—the antediluvian—when we are told "violence filled the earth."

Somebody has called attention to the fact that there is no article before the name God in the original Greek, where this nondescript is represented as being worshipped as God; hence it should read "Worshipped as a god."

In every other case the article appears before the name God, Christ and Lord.

It is useless to ask the question, Have any such conditions ever appeared in the history of the Christian era? Surely not. These forecasts must, therefore, portray conditions yet to come, as does the thirteenth chapter of the Apocalypse where this monster is described as a beast with a mysterious number.—666. We are told that all the inhabitants of the earth will be compelled to worship this coming one or suffer martydrom. They who buy or sell will be forced to receive his mark upon their foreheads or right hands under pain of death. No such power has appeared so far.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Final arrangements for Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's tour of the United States have been completed. Mme. Bernhardt has studied English especially for this tour and will appear in a series of one-act plays.

A dispatch from Munich says that the Bavarians' losses on the Somme front during July were 85,500 men, of which 14,500 were killed, 67,000 were wounded, including two generals, and 4,000 are missing.

Dr. J. L. Andrews, president of the board of health of Memphis, Tenn., issued an order abolishing church communion cups yesterday. He said so many persons sipping from the same cup was a spreader of disease, especially typhoid fever.

A large German fleet of dreadnoughts, cruisers, destroyers and submarines came out of the Kiel Canal Thursday, according to Copenhagen newspapers. The fleet was sighted off Tranderup steaming with great speed through the narrow waters of the Little Belt, which is between the Baltic Sea and the Cattegat.

A farmer named Palmer, near Nacona, Tex., several days ago plowed up silver bars on his farm variously estimated to be worth from $100,000 to $280,000. It is believed the bars were left at Nacona by Spaniards in the sixteenth or seventeenth centuries when they retreated owing to activity of Indians.

The debate in the Danish rigsdag Thursday and again today on the treaty for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States indicates that the treaty is doomed to defeat. At least it may safely be forecast that the treaty will not be accepted until a new election has taken place according to the new constitutional law.

The Greek steamer Eletheria, bound from Saloniki to Volo with a cargo of oil, owned by an American company, and 1,200 passengers, principally disbanded troops, caught fire yesterday off the Island of Skiatho. Forty persons were killed and many were injured. The captain of the Eletheria succeeded finally in beaching his vessel.

The official press bureau tonight publishes an estimate of the losses suffered to date by the Germans in the war The enormous figure of 3,315,177 is given as a total, with 784,000 killed; prisoners and missing, 357,617 and wounded 1,993,160. The figures, which are based on official German casualty lists, include all classes except naval colonials.

Representatives of both sides in the railroad controversy predicted yesterday in New York that an order calling for a nation-wide railroad strike would be issued within 48 hours. It was predicted also that before this order would have time to become active, the railroads would meet the demands of the men. There was little hope last night that the mediation conference would continue much longer or that it would produce any tangible results.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, is plaintiff in a suit filed yesterday in the District of Columbia Municipal Court to recover $30. The court record shows the suit filed in the name of "Edith B. Wilson, trading as Galt and Brother." W. B. Hopkins, is the defendant and the $30 is for merchandise he is declared to have purchased. Mrs. Wilson is the owner of Galt and Brother's jewelry store, in Washington, which was left her by her first husband, Norman Galt.

"Personally, I cannot see any way by which we can forego our undoubted right to prevent our subjects from providing resources of trade to our enemies said Lord Robert Cecil, British minister of war trade, in discussing yesterday with American newspaper correspondents the latest developments in Great Britain's warfare. "There is not likely to be any change in the policy of the allies as a result of neutral protests," he continued. "Italy, by her action in publishing a blacklist, is merely following the policy outlined at the Paris conference."

John a Hughes, jr., 25 years old, lies in a critical condition at the Emergency Hospital, in Washington, with a compound fracture of the skull, lacerated wounds and other serious injuries as the result of a fall out of the third-story window of the Bond building last night at 10 o'clock into an areaway back of the battery of elevators. Hughes plunged through the steel wire screened skylight over the roof of the areaway of the second floor, tearing through that glass and steel to the ground floor, where his body smashed through a plate glass flooring an inch and an eighth thick, landing in the cellar. It is the belief of the police that he sat down in the window, which was open, and lost his balance, and fell. Mr. Hughes weighs about 200 pounds. The distance he fell will closely approximate 40 feet.

NOT DUE TO SEX ALONE

Alexandria Women Have Learned The Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches.

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy, headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills, is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well-recommended by Alexandria people. Read this case:

Mrs. Maude Simpson, 211 Wilkes street, Alexandria, says: 'I suffered from dull pains in my hips and across the small of my back. I felt all run down and nervous, due to the effects of disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief."

(Statement given March 27 11912)

On April 9, 1915, Mrs. Simpson said: "Whenever I have that tired ache across my kidneys, I use Doan's Kidney Pills. Nothing has ever given me so much relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Simpson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
